Area 3: Providing a language rich (Eng) Environment for students

3.1 Enforcing the Language Policy 1. PA, LED Poster and bulletin board The language used should follow the school policy. For the class bulletin board, at least 50% should be in English. For the reminders written on the blackboard in the morning, teachers i/c should remind the helper to follow the school policy. 2. Whole school assembly The worship part (Hymn singing and prayer) should be conducted in English. Speakers are encouraged to use English for their talk. Services will include: a small library of books and videos, games, computer workstations, discussion area, activities related to English Portfolio programme (e.g., book sharing and reading aloud)& consultations with EMI co-ordinator Purchase additional software, build up a school-owned video library More intensive training given to executives -Executives to be given more responsibility to oversee the EC - F6 students will be required to take up 3-4 shifts per academic year. One F6 student will be on duty for each -the EC will only be open if enough executives and helpers are present (one of each). The services offered will depend on the number of executives and helpers on duty (2 people = borrowing only, 3 = borrowing + visitors can do anything else inside the EC, 4 = visitors can also play games in the area behind the hall). This means the EC will NOT be open every day unless we have 8 executives and 20 helpers. Also, if the required helpers are absent, the EC will be closed WITHOUT notice.. -More special days (e.g., Girls Day, Senior Form students day) to limit the number students and encourage a wider range of videos. There will stricter enforcement of guidelines regarding behaviour. -Different software programmes will be made available on different days Music CDs (the items most prone to theft will be removed from their cases and kept behind the helper's desk)	The majority of students in F.1-3 will have used the English corner at least twice during the academic year and will be satisfied with the services.
